

2015-2017 CORE SKILL REQUIREMENTS
ADVANCED MILITARY LAW/COMMAND ADVICE
1201 SUBSPECIALTY
881 CURRICULUM

The Advanced Military Law/Command Advice subspecialty (1201) will provide a command with advanced Command Advice specialists who understand commanders' duties as leaders, combatants, and guardians of public property and personnel, and are prepared to advise/support commanders and their staffs in any aspect of these roles. These officers will have advanced experience across the spectrum of legal services including administrative and civil law, ethics, military justice, fiscal law, and international and operational law. Specific capabilities and requirements include the following:

- Administrative and Civil Law
- Criminal Law and Procedure
- Joint Ethics Regulation/Standards of Conduct
- Fiscal and Contract Law
- International and Operational Law
- Legal Assistance

Billet subspecialty coding is to be based on the minimum education/training/experience level required for optimum performance. The Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) subspecialty coding is justified when, in addition to the general criteria stated in NAVPERS 15839 series (Manual of Navy Officer Manpower and Personnel Classification) Part B, the following specific criteria are satisfied:

1. Subspecialty Coding Restrictions:

Billets assigned to: Judge Advocate General's Corps Officer Community

2. Applicable Officer Designator(s): 2500

3. Applicable Billet Designator: 2500

Enclosure (2)

4. Significant Experience Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) S-coded billets are justified when the billet requires legal services involving administrative and civil law, ethics, military justice, fiscal law, and international and operational law. Specific focus may include law of military installations, standards of conduct/ethics, military personnel law, command authorities, government information practices, civil litigation, admiralty, relations with civil authorities, disciplinary proceedings, and legal assistance (family law, consumer law, and estate planning).

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) S-coded officers are authorized when the following conditions are met:

(1) Through experience the officers are recognized experts in military law. Advanced Command Advice specialists will be legal advisors who understand commanders' duties as leaders, combatants, and guardians of public property and personnel, and are prepared to advise/support commanders and their staffs in any aspect of these roles. These officers will have advanced experience across the spectrum of legal services including administrative and civil law, ethics, military justice, fiscal law, and international and operational law. Specific focus includes law of military installations, standards of conduct/ethics, military personnel law, government information practices, civil litigation/admiralty, relations with civil authorities, disciplinary proceedings, and legal assistance (family law, consumer law, and estate planning); and

(2) The Officer has filled a P billet for more than 18 months and has no Subspecialty Code in this field; or

(3) FITREP reflects the officer has accomplished the task(s) indicated above for more than 18 months.

c. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) R-coded billets are not justified.

d. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) R-coded officers are not authorized.

5. Baccalaureate Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) E-coded billets are not justified.

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) E-coded officers are not authorized.

6. Elective Level Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) H-coded billets are not justified.

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) H-coded officers are not authorized.

7. Functional Education Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) F-coded billets are not justified.

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) F-coded officers are not authorized.

c. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) G-coded billets are not justified.

d. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) G-coded officers are not authorized.

8. Masters Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) P-coded billets are justified when the billet requires legal services involving administrative and civil law, ethics, military justice, fiscal law, and international and operational law. Specific focus may include law of military installations, standards of conduct/ethics, military personnel law, command authorities, government information practices, civil litigation, admiralty, relations with civil authorities, disciplinary proceedings, and legal assistance (family law, consumer law, and estate planning).

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) P-coded officers are authorized when:

(1) The officer completes Advanced Military Law/Command Advice Curriculum 881 ESRs at the Army JAG Corps Legal Center.

(2) Full subspecialty will not be given if academic writing requirement is not completed. The officer will receive the T Subspecialty Code. Utilization and obligations are still required. (NOTE: When thesis is completed, student must apply to NPS registrar for new transcript which should be forwarded to PERS-43 to update Officer Master File.)

c. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) Q-coded billets are not justified.

d. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) Q-coded officers are authorized when all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The officer satisfies all requirements for a 1201 P-code; and

(2) The officer has completed an assignment for a minimum of 18 months in at least one Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) P-coded billet.

9. Post-Master's Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) N-coded billets are not justified.

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) N-coded officers are not authorized.

c. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) M-coded billets are not justified.

Enclosure (2)

d. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) M-coded officers are not authorized.

10. Doctorate Criteria:

a. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) D-coded billets are not justified.

b. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) D-coded officers are not authorized.

c. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) C-coded billets are not justified.

d. Advanced Military Law/Command Advice (1201) C-coded officers are not authorized.

11. Community Managers and the Budget Submitting Office have agreed to allow billets to be coded for Advanced Military Law/Command Advice 881 and officers to be educated in this curriculum.

CDR Jessica Pyburn
JAG Corps Officer Community Manager
Approval date: 29 May 2014

12. Major Area Sponsor and Subject Matter Experts:

Major Area Sponsor: VADM Nanette M. DeRenzi, Judge Advocate General of the Navy

Subject Matter Expert: Deputy Assistant Judge Advocate General (Administrative Law) (Code 13)

APPROVED:  27 Jul 15
JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL DATE

APPROVED:  7/9/2015
DIRECTOR, FMTE (OPNAV N12) DATE